

Eisenhower Confers with Menzies on Suez

President Will Return to Farm
After Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today interrupted a four-day vacation at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm to confer here with Australian Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies on the Suez crisis.

The President was expected to ask Menzies for the Australian's personal views on the Suez Canal situation and his estimate of Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's ambitions in the Middle East. Menzies headed the five-nation committee that failed to get Nasser to negotiate on the American plan for internationalizing the canal.

Mr. Eisenhower planned to leave Gettysburg by plane after spending the early part of the day relaxing at his farm. He planned to return by nightfall.

The Eisenhower-Menzies meeting was set against a background of a newly clarified American position on Suez.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told a jammed news conference Thursday.

The United States would join the proposed "users' associations" even if only Britain and France took part. But he said—emphasizing he could not speak for other nations—the United States does not intend "to shoot its way through the canal."

He said if Egypt blocks U. S. ships from the canal, the vessels will be sent around the Cape of Good Hope. He said he hoped other nations would do likewise.

Dulles' alternative had many of the earmarks of the U. S. airlift that broke the Communist blockade of Berlin.

Government and private oil company representatives pressed completion of Dulles' alternative plan for carrying oil around Africa is Nasser refuses to let ships of the new association go through the canal.

The government already has decided to take tankers out of the government's "mothball" fleet in case they are needed for such duty. The Maritime Administration said the government has 26 tankers that can be taken out of mothballs in less than two months.

Dulles said the U. S. Export-Import Bank stood ready to loan funds to other nations who might need financial help to divert oil shipments to the longer route.

Coal Production Up in August

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Illinois coal production totaled 3,684,739 tons during August, the State Mines and Minerals Department announced today.

The August tonnage was up 716,459 tons over July and up 39,401 tons over August last year.

The increased tonnage, however, was produced by fewer miners. There were 10,831 miners working in August, compared with 11,317 working in July.

The August tonnage was reported by 103 mines in 29 counties.

Williamson county was the biggest producer in August, with 500,196 tons, followed by Christian County with 436,895 tons.

Two persons were killed and 61 injured in state coal mining operations during the month.

The accidents increased the totals to 14 killed and 654 injured in mining operations in the state so far this year.

One of the fatal accidents occurred when a roof collapsed in a Randolph county mine; the other resulted from a haulage accident in a Saline county mine.

Pankeyville Baptist Church to Observe 18th Anniversary With Homecoming

The Pankeyville Baptist church will have a homecoming Sunday, Sept. 16, in observance of the church's 18th anniversary.

A potluck dinner will be served at noon and the Rev. James Baldwin will bring the afternoon message. The public is cordially invited.

The following is a history of the church:

On Dec. 10, 1935, a group of 14 women met at the home of Mrs. Ruth Gates and organized the Pankeyville Baptist Volunteers, the aim of the organization being to work and pray until a Baptist church could be built in Pankeyville.

The women were Fannie Owen, Ruth Gates, Hattie Moyer, Gertrude Wasson, Rose Dixon, Alta Norman, Cora Harris, Jessie Crank, Fannie Foster, Betty Norman, Irene Wasson, Catherine Ingram, Helen Temple, and Minnie Owen. As time passed other women joined the group until there were approximately 30 members. The women quitted, had bake sales, chicken dinners, silver coffees, and twice produced a home talent play.

Cottage Prayer Meetings

During the volunteer days prayer meetings were held each week and those were always attended by the men. The first cottage prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waddell on January 9, 1936. The women stopped quilting at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to hold a prayer service.

June 6, 1938, work was begun on the church building. During the construction period donations of cash and labor came from many, and most of the church furnishings were donated from other churches or persons wishing to make a gift to the new church.

The building was completed and furnished on Sept. 18, 1938, and a council composed of 29 elders and deacons met for the purpose of organizing a Missionary Baptist church in Pankeyville. H. C. Croplin Sr. was moderator and F. J. Weir was clerk of the council.

Church Has Had 11 Pastors

Officers including a pastor were elected by the new church. Rev. James M. Baldwin was the first pastor, Cressie Wasson, treasurer, and Gertrude Wasson, church clerk. Charlie Clark was Sunday school superintendent and Ruth Gates was secretary.

The church has had eleven pastors as follows: James M. Baldwin, Otto Kunath, Harry Garrett, Ezra Hancock, Ernest Ammon, Roy Reynolds, A. O. Hancock, J. L. Peppersack, Bill Robinson, Bill Hoit and the present pastor, Ray Daniels, who has been with the church since June 10, 1953. Rev. Daniels has also been called as pastor for the coming year.

In 1948 the church built an addition along its north side, which consisted of three class rooms upstairs, furnace room, coal room and one class room in the basement. A furnace and stoker were also installed in 1948.

In 1952 a full basement was put under the old part of the building, providing seven class rooms and an auditorium.

111 Members of Church

At present the church has a fully graded Sunday school with Kallie Sadler as superintendent. Ruth Gates is secretary and Delmar Mattingly is assistant superintendent. Gertrude Hayes is superintendent of the younger department. The Sunday school has an enrollment of 96. There are 36 enrolled in Training Union of which T. G. Moyer is director.

Other church officers are: Mrs. Ruth Gates, president of the Women's Missionary Union; Mrs. Nancy Sadler, G. A. counselor; Dorothy Waddell and Carolyn Hayes, Sunbeam leaders; Mrs. Gertrude Hayes, church clerk and William Ritsch, treasurer.

The church has a membership of 111. The pastor's wife, Mrs. Betty Daniels, serves as pianist and Jerry Lauderdale as song leader.

During the past 30 months the church has acquired new pulpit furniture and been redecorated.

Carrier Mills Man is Serving On Two Juries

Walter Davis of Carrier Mills is having the unusual distinction of serving on a circuit court grand jury and petit jury the same week.

Mr. Davis' name was drawn for both juries and he was sworn in with the rest of the grand jury at 9:30 a. m. Monday. The grand jury went into recess, however, at the end of the day and Mr. Davis was selected yesterday as a petit jury for a lawsuit in which Maxine Pickett of Salem, administratrix of the estate of her late husband, Harry Pickett, seeks damages from C. Mart Watson and Wilburn and Bernard Farris as a result of a collision which took Pickett's life in 1952.

The jury for this case, selection of which began yesterday morning, was completed at 10:40 a. m. today.

Meanwhile the grand jury reconvened at 9 a. m. today to continue its investigations, minus Mr. Davis, who was retained with the lawsuit jury.

Suez War Threat Eases; See Quick Council Action

Hagerty Brands Stevenson's Charge as 'Ridiculous'; Reveals Ike Campaign Plans

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty today branded "ridiculous" Adlai E. Stevenson's charge that President Eisenhower no longer is "master in his own house."

Stevenson fired the accusation Thursday night in a speech formally kicking off his campaign for the presidency. He told cheering Democrats in Harrisburg, Pa., that Mr. Eisenhower no longer is master of his party because Republicans now look to Vice President Richard M. Nixon as the "their apparent."

Hagerty said the President watched Stevenson's speech on television "for a few minutes" but had "nothing to say" about it. But on the claim Mr. Eisenhower no longer is master, Hagerty said his own opinion is "I think it is ridiculous."

The press secretary offered the terse comment as he announced new details regarding the President's September campaign plans.

Hagerty said the chief executive on next Tuesday will go to the Washington National Airport and speak at a send-off breakfast for Nixon who will embark shortly thereafter on a 32-state campaign tour.

On the following day, Sept. 19, Mr. Eisenhower will deliver his first major, nationwide campaign speech, speaking from the studios of the Columbia Broadcasting System in Washington at 7:30 p. m. CST. His speech will be carried nationally over CBS TV and radio.

The White House today also said that Mr. Eisenhower will deliver a major farm speech at Peoria, Ill., on Tuesday, Sept. 25, speaking from the field house of Bradley University at 7:30 p. m. CST.

The chief executive has a previously announced date at the national plowing contest in Newton, Iowa, on Sept. 21. This will not involve a nationwide televised speech, but will be what the President has described previously as a "visit" with the people of the mid-west farming community.

This morning the President got in nine holes of golf at the Gettysburg County Club before flying back to Washington.

Hagerty said that when the President visits Peoria, because of the hour of the speech, he probably will remain there overnight.

Prior to the talk at the Butler University fieldhouse, Mr. Eisenhower probably will have dinner in the town of Peoria with Gov. William G. Stratton, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.), and members of the GOP ticket in Illinois.

Stevenson Sets Up Nixon as Main Target of His Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson flew into Washington today for the formal opening of his campaign headquarters and to spend eight days in and near the capital.

"I'm planning to move to Washington," the Democratic presidential candidate told a crowd of about 300 which greeted him at National Airport.

He arrived in a chartered plane at 8:25 a. m. CST from Harrisburg, Pa., where he formally opened his campaign for the presidency Thursday night.

His speech was billed as a "formal" opening because Stevenson already had traveled 12,000 to 15,000 miles since the Democratic convention mapping campaign strategy with local leaders and making public appearances.

The speech Thursday night made it clear that Stevenson has set up Vice President Richard M. Nixon as his main target.

Stevenson called President Eisenhower a "part-time" president who no longer is "master in his own house." Republican leaders, he said, will look to Nixon as their "their apparent."

Stevenson was greeted at the Washington airport by Chairman Paul M. Butler of the Democratic National Committee and by Democratic leaders of the non-voting District of Columbia and from adjoining areas of Maryland and Virginia.

Heard Over TV

Stevenson delivered his speech Thursday night before a crowd of 8,500 who had paid $50 a plate for a cold buffet supper earlier. His remarks were carried over all radio and television networks, at a cost of more than $200,000 to the Democrats.

Stevenson charged that "partly by choice, partly by necessity," Mr. Eisenhower has turned government powers over to men who represent "business, mostly big business."

"Everyone shares in sympathy for the circumstances which have created a part-time presidency,"

Attorneys for a committee opposed to the ending of the Chicago overnight service and attorneys for the railroad will decide before Oct. 3 on a date for a hearing to be held at Mount Carmel to permit area citizens to testify.

Selective Service Board Screening Standby Reserves, Chairman Doom Says

"Congress in its last session enacted a law giving the Selective Service System responsibility for screening the Nation's entire standby reserve, both men and women, and the reservists are being mailed questionnaires to be filled out and returned to local boards for use in determining their availability in time of national emergency,"

Amos J. Doom, chairman of Local Board No. 193, Saline county, said today.

In explaining why the standby reservists are receiving these questionnaires, Mr. Doom pointed out some of the problems which faced standby reservists in years past. "In time of emergency the standby reservist had no way of judging if and when he would be called to active duty. This was actually less knowledge than most selective service registrants had in regard to their status, since they could find out many things regarding their situation and also had the opportunity of presenting information to their draft boards (made up of local people), who could take action to reclassify them where circumstances warranted it."

The program will provide a service not only to the standby reservist who will know his emergency recall status but also to the armed services, which will know the availability of their standby reserve pools.

Expect Walkout By Pilots to Cripple Canal

Eden Restores

Unity But Warns

Israel Next Target

LONDON (AP)—The threat of an immediate war over the Suez Canal receded today despite tonight's walkout of Suez Canal pilots that is expected to cripple or close the waterway.

But the six-week-old crisis remained a grave one and British Prime Minister Anthony Eden refused to renounce the use of force as a last resort and warned that Israel might be next if Egypt wins on the canal issue.

Cairo dispatches said Egypt welcomed Eden's declaration he would take the dispute to the United Nations Security Council and Egyptian government sources called this a turning point in Egypt's favor.

Contingency of Request

Eden said specifically he would seek Security Council action if Egypt blocks pilots of the canal users association from moving ship convoys through the canal. He would be expected to charge Egypt with violating the 1888 Convention guaranteeing freedom of passage.

In New York, U. N. sources said the Security Council might be convened "within a few days."

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' declaration the United States would not shoot its way through the Suez Canal also soothed worried diplomats in Cairo, Western Europe and the remainder of the world.

Eden's promise of possible U. N. action succeeded in restoring unity in his badly divided nation and even won cheers from the opposition Labor Party. It coincided with demands throughout the world that a peaceful solution be found.

Eden's Windup Speech

But "no true and lasting peace can be bought by a surrender of rights and legitimate interests to outside pressure and force," Eden said in his windup speech.

"What will be the next step if Colonel Nasser is allowed to succeed in the action he already has taken? I have no doubt what it will be—Israel."

Eden's promise of U. N. action came Thursday night at the close of two days of bitter debate on the Suez crisis by an emergency session of Parliament. He won a vote of confidence on his policy by a vote of 319 to 245, a strict party line victory of 71 votes.

In making the pledge Eden may have weakened his own leadership of the Conservative Party. There were dismayed looks on the faces of some of his supporters when he made it, and cheers from the opposition.

Bridges Critical Gap

But it went a long way to bridge the critical gap between the Conservatives and the Socialists and repair the most serious break in Britain's bipartisan foreign policy since Munich and the war.

Planning for the next step went ahead at full speed. British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd was flying to Paris today for talks with Foreign Minister Christian Pineau aimed at consolidating Anglo-French policy.

The Big Three Western powers meet here Monday to plan further details of operating the canal users' association. A conference on the association is to be called later in the week to marshal international support.

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Near East Diplomatic Puzzle: How Did U. S. State Dept. Figure Nasser Trustworthy? Sweet-Talking Nasser Spends Millions On Arms, But Little To Improve Lot Of Egyptian Masses.

NAHARIA, Galilee. — In this part of the world where passions run as deep as the wells which search for water in desert sands, the biggest puzzle in the minds of diplomats, including Americans, is how the U. S. State Department got sucked into believing that Gamel Abdel Nasser was the great pal of the U. S. A.

Certainly, until six months ago, this was the contention of Hank Byroade, the usually able U. S. ambassador to Egypt, and of Loy Henderson, the deputy undersecretary detailed to argue with Nasser in Cairo, and of Herbert Hoover Jr., his superior, and of John Foster Dulles, the superior of all three.

They believed that Colonel Nasser was a trusted friend of the United States, pushed at times by Egyptian extremists toward Russia to be sure, but devoutly anxious to lift up the disease-torn masses of Egypt and line up his country with the West. Dulles, Henderson, Hoover, Byroade, et al, not only believed this but were so firmly convinced that they painstakingly and patiently tried to sell the idea to the British. They were even hurt, puzzled and irritated when the British refused 100 per cent to believe.

ENGLAND'S SPLIT POLICY

To some extent the British did believe; but their belief resulted not so much from American persuasion but from the split policy of the British foreign office which always plays part of the empire's poker chips on the Arabs, part on the non-Arabs in the Middle East.

The British knew, at least in a general sort of way, that while Colonel Nasser was sweet-talking his agents were undermining the empire all over Africa and Asia. They were stirring up trouble in British Somaliland, inciting revolt in Tanganyika, countering to get, Glubb Pasha kicked out of Jordan as head of the Arab Legion, trying to woo King Saud of Saudi Arabia away from the west and sabotaging the defense alliance with pro-British Iraq.

All this time Nasser was talking big about helping the downtrodden Egyptian people, about putting across the Eric Johnston agreement for irrigating the river Jordan, and about his general friendship with the west.

But while he was sweet-talking he was also accusing or letting his own government spokesmen accuse the United States of sending diseased chickens into Egypt under the Point 4 program in order to contaminate Egyptian chickens. He was accusing the United States of conspiring to take over the Near East. And while spending several hundred millions on arms, he spent hardly a dollar to uplift the masses of Egypt.

In Suez, in Alexandria, in Cairo today, the narrow streets and alleyways are still lined with children and beggars, sleeping in the gutters, the flies swarming over the trachoma pus that courses down their cheeks and is spread from child to child, by the flies, until blindness in Egypt is greater than perhaps anywhere in the world.

U. S. DIPLOMATS CAN'T SEE

Nevertheless, American diplomats refused to believe.

On Oct. 14, 1955, almost a year ago, the Cairo radio proclaimed: "Justice and logic require that we now defend Russia and attack America, which has shown falsehood, deceit and ill-will."

On Oct. 2, 1955 Al-Ahram, the Cairo daily, proclaimed: "America with all its millions and billions cannot win the heart of Egypt with diseased point 4 chicks. . . Nor can America win the heart of Egypt with cheese, condensed milk, etc., which we know she is interested in getting rid of. America cannot win the heart of Egyptians with her worthless colored posters in which she attacks communism while she herself is not a democratic country."

On Oct. 11, 1955, also a year ago, the Cairo radio proclaimed: "American weapons provide the basic channel for the penetration of American influence. The Americans, therefore, invented what they called the Mutual Security Pact. They offer it to miserable nations forced by circumstances to arm, and they innocently say to them: 'All you have to do is sign this pact and American weapons will pour into your country without costing you a single cent.'"

On Dec. 13, 1955 Cairo radio proclaimed: "In Turkey there is backwardness which has been made more so through American aid. . . Where is the prosperity enjoyed by Turkey after having received dozens of millions from its friend, the United States? . . . The aid and loans crisis are the outcome of the policy pursued by Turkey. American loans are subject to conditions serving the interests of the United States. Only on that basis are loans granted."

NO FRIEND, HE

Meanwhile Egypt was still accepting aid from the United States, military and otherwise, and wanting more. In fact, it was because the United States finally declined aid to build the Aswan dam that Nasser shouted "Let them choke on their own fury!" and seized the Suez canal. Meanwhile American diplomats were still arguing that Colonel Nasser was the friend of the United States.

As far back as Jan. 10, 1955, Al-Tahrir, official newspaper of the military junta that put Nasser in power, accused the U. S. A. of having helped assassinate the president of Panama, Jose Antonio Remon, and also in plotting against Nasser's life.

That was how little Colonel Nasser and his group loved the U. S. A. 18 months ago.

Southern Illinois Labor, Management Concepts No Different Than Other Areas

CARBONDALE, Ill.—Are southern Illinois laborers a different breed from those in other parts of the country? Not as far as their bosses are concerned, according to a test of labor and management representatives in the Metropolis area.

Two Southern Illinois University psychologists tested the group in an attempt to throw new light on one of the region's most persistent problems—a widespread notion of "labor trouble." The test attempted to compare the actual wants of worker and boss ("benefits," "easy work," "good boss," "opportunity for advancement," etc.) with the workers' (or boss') predictions about what the other would want him to want.

Dr. William Westberg and Dr. Israel Goldiamond gave the men a questionnaire titled "What Do Workers Want Most From Their Jobs?" Both groups (union and rank-and-file workers and employers from the Metropolis area) were asked to rank the dozen job attributes three ways: The worker first stated what he most wanted, then what he thought his boss wanted him to want, and finally, how he thought his fellow-workers would rank the choices.

Employers Show Accuracy
Employers were asked to state how they wanted their men to rank the items, how they predicted the men would rank the items, and how the average worker in the U. S. would rank the items.

Among other thought-provoking results Goldiamond and Westberg said the employers showed "astounding accuracy in predicting what their employees most wanted out of a job but were not overly happy with the choices." The investigators said "the employer is apparently interested most in the employees appreciating what the employer can do for him."

The employers, for instance, wanted workers to rank "steady work," "good boss," "type of work" and "opportunity to learn a job" as his first four choices. Rank-and-file workers ticked off "steady work" and "high pay" as their first two choices. Union workers listed "benefits" and "opportunity for advancement."

Rank-and-file workers upset the bosses' predictions by showing prime interest in those things the employer "feels he can provide." The study indicates the boss himself doesn't expect the worker to be so cooperative.

Further analysis led the researchers to conclude that management's concepts of the local workers and the American worker are about the same. Hence, if someone is stating that workers of southern Illinois are a different breed from those of the rest of the U. S., the statement is incorrect according to the SIU study.

Primary conclusion of the pilot study was that "what labor wants and what management wants of labor are closer together than what labor thinks management wants of it. In other words, the terms

Release Application Blanks for '57 Licenses

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—The secretary of state's office has announced application blanks for 1957 motor vehicle license plates have been released for distribution.

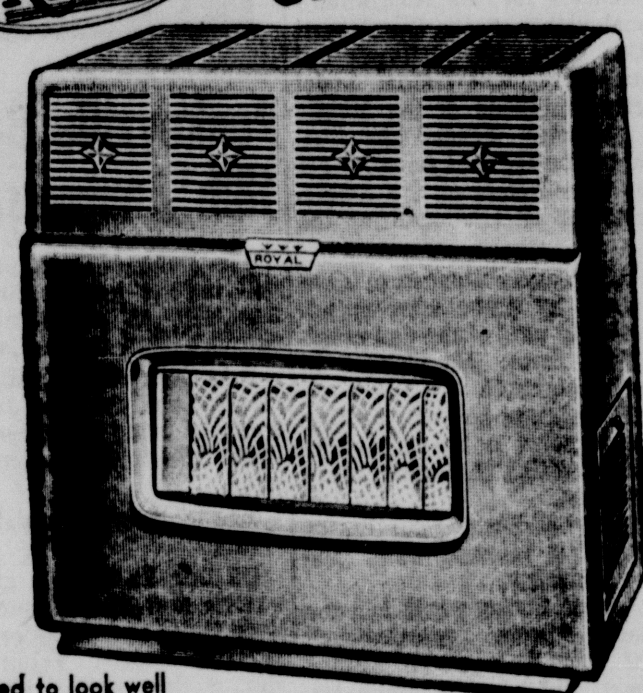

Motorists who want their present license numbers reassigned to them must file their applications during October.

"labor" and "management" are at issue with each other, but labor and management are not too far apart."

The quiz was given participants in a series of labor-management relations meeting in Metropolis. The sessions were co-sponsored by Southern's Extension Division and the Massac County Labor-Management Council.

Westberg and Goldiamond have requested funds for a longer study to include other labor areas in southern Illinois. The test will then be expanded to "tap a variety of relations between the groups."

Miss Mary Shannon Taylor, Robert R.
Ozment Exchange Vows at St. Mary's

(Foster Studio Photo)
Mrs. Robert R. Ozment

In a most reverent and lovely double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. T. G. Bruns Miss Mary Shannon Taylor, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Shannon H. Taylor, 211
East Lincoln, and Robert R. Ozment, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ward Ozment, RFD 1, Harrisburg, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, Sept. 1, at nine o'clock in the morning at St. Mary's Catholic church.

The altar banked with greenery was decorated with tall gold vases and standards of white gladioli, and white tapers burned in branch candelabra. Garlands of salal and arrangements of white gladioli adorned the side altars. The altar rail was draped with strands of ivy and huckleberry.

Mrs. Edward F. Keszley sang the high mass and "Ave Maria" as the bride and groom knelt at the altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Miss Shirley Karnes sang "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" preceding the service.

Little Francie Sullivan was flower girl dressed in pink nylon trimmed with white lace and pink rosebuds. Her ponytail hairdo was encircled with pink rosebuds and she scattered peach blossoms from a turquoise and pink basket in the path of the bride.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, was at her loveliest in a beautiful gown of chantilly lace and nylon.
The lace bodice was designed with a sashina neckline and lone pointed sleeves and the skirt of tiny nylon pleated ruffles with panels of lace extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and lace. She carried a cascade of stephanotis encircling a white orchid with white streamers, French net and tulle, and wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Joylene Taylor, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a waltz length gown of blue turquoise poie de soi designed on princess lines with a bell-shaped full skirt. A wide sash of deeper turquoise at the hipline extended into a large bow in the back. She wore a turquoise halo hat with long streamers and matching mits.
Her flowers were a cascade of turquoise carnations and peach gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Edwin Towle, Miss Ann Funkhouser and Miss Patricia Taylor, sister of the bride. Their gowns were of peach poie de soi and were styled identically as that of the maid of honor.
They wore matching halo hats and mits and carried cascades of peach gladioli.

Junior bridesmaid was Miss Karen Ozment, sister of the bridegroom.
Her gown was of peach iridescent taffeta fashioned princess style with a bow in back at the neckline which extended to a V.
She wore a matching headband and carried a small bouquet of peach
gladioli.

Tommy Golden was best man to the bridegroom and groomsmen were Bill Epperheimer, George Edward Dalton, Ronny Riegel and Roby Culley.

Randall Doty was ring bearer.
Serving as ushers were Edwin Towle, Jerry Taylor and Robert Conover.

Mrs. Taylor chose for her daughter's wedding a waltz length dress of champagne nylon chiffon with a shirred bodice. She wore a large brown picture hat and a corsage of gold and brown cimbudiums.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a blue slate silk sheath with pearl and sequin trim at the neckline. She wore a matching hat and pink cimbudiums.

A reception was held in the church parlor which was decorated with huckleberry and gladioli.
White pomps encircled the wedding cake and punch bowl and white candles graced the table.

Hostesses were Mrs. Olen Ingram,
Mrs. James Stricklin, Mrs. Fred
Wilmoth and Mrs. Victor Humm.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans,
La., the couple is now at home at 16 West Lincoln.

The bride and groom are graduates of the Harrisburg Township high school and she is a junior and he is a senior at Southern Illinois University.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ryan, Verona, Ill., Mrs. James Rann,
Verona, George Henley, Chicago,
Mr. and Mrs. John Fry and daughter, of Fairfield.

Student, Fail

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UP) A psychology student faced a hearing today after his parents had him thrown in jail in a futile attempt to stall his marriage.

Richard John, 21, said he was willing to sell his sports car to support his Greek wife, Frances Paris, 21. The couple was married at Des Moines, Iowa, Monday.

The University of Illinois student was jailed after his arrest during a wedding rehearsal in Quincy, Ill.
His parents accused him of obtaining $4,800 under false pretenses from a bank account he held jointly with his mother.

Two days after his release on $2,500 bond, John and Miss Paris were married.

The couple returned to the university campus Thursday so John might register for his senior year, as well as find an apartment.

John said he would take a part-time job, and his wife, whose real name is Efrosini Petzioudaki, would work while he attended classes.
He said he was willing to part with his expensive Jaguar sports car, despite an "affection" for it. He said he bore "no animosity" toward his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. John, for trying to prevent the wedding although "it was a shock" to be thrown in jail by his own parents.

Your New Car: Lower Body, Higher Cost

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

DETROIT—(NEA)—This town is about as excited as an expectant father getting news that his wife is giving birth to triplets.

It's no wonder, because the delivery of the new 1957 models is shaping up as one of the most crucial and dramatic blessed events in automotive history.

Here's the attending doctor's latest bulletin:

All makes are lower, longer and look wider. Tires on most makes are reduced from 15 to 14 inches to achieve part of a lowered silhouette. Clever new body designs cut another two to four inches without reducing room inside.

Rear fins are higher and curved outward on several models. Chrysler has discovered that high fins add driving stability to cars, the firm claims.

Most new models have four main headlights. One pair is for normal city driving. The extra pair is for country driving. Some models have them paired side-by-side; some are paired vertically.

All new cars have engines with more pep and horsepower, although this fact will be played up less in the ads than in previous years. The 1957s will have from 225 horsepower in the cheaper cars, to 350 horsepower in the most expensive models.

The radical fuel injection system giving more power and simplified ignition is being introduced for the first time as optional equipment. One leading business magazine says it will appear first on Chevrolet's sports car, the Corvette, and be available on other Chevrolets.

Colors are toned down considerably. Black recently became the most popular in the Chrysler line for the first time in years. That trend is expected to continue. Interiors of the 1957s will also be toned down considerably over '55 and '56 models.

All new models have more glass. Some have roofs partially of glass. Windows are "wrapped around" the back of some models and more extensively around the front of many more.

Chrysler, General Motors and Ford have new spring systems for better rides.

A whole range of new gimmicks and optional accessories, such as hi-fi transistor radios and many new versions of the Chrysler and Packard push-button shifting, are being offered.

An impressive range of new safety features will be introduced.

Almost all firms are trying to capitalize on the great popularity in the station wagon field. Oldsmobile, for example, is coming out with one after abandoning the wagon several years ago.

Makes with completely new models, from tires to top, include Plymouth, Dodge, DeSoto, Chrysler,

The Composite 1957 Automobile

HERE'S Detroit's new look in a nutshell:
Silhouette: Lower and longer, many with smaller wheels.

Rear fins: Higher, some curved outwards.

Headlights: Two pairs on most models.

Engines: More pep and horsepower; at least one model with radical fuel injection system.

Colors: Toned down considerably; comeback for all-black.

Windows: "Wrap-around" extended to rear windows; some roofs partially glass.

Price: Up from $50 to $200; higher financing charges.

Imperial, Ford, Mercury, Oldsmobile, Buick and Cadillac. The change in Chevrolet is a so-called face-lift. But it's essentially a new car, too.

Pontiac, Lincoln, Nash, Hudson, Rambler and Studebaker-Packard have models face-lifted to varying degrees.

If this run-down makes the 1957 cars sound plush and expensive that's the correct interpretation.

Never before has the American public been offered such a jump in driving luxury between model years.

But the American public is also going to have to pay for it, too.

Price increases from $50 to $200 are being set, to take care of labor and steel increases, they say here.

On top of that the cost of credit was given a boost. On a $3,000 car, with a $1,000 down payment and the balance spread over two years, the customer will pay an additional $10 to $15 carrying charge.

A final blow to the customer's pocketbook is the new attitude which the manufacturers have been working frantically to build into their dealers. This is, to get them to halt making "deals" and to stand firm on the factory-set retail prices.

The factory argument is that the '57s are so attractive there will be no need to bargain away profits.

Wage Talks for Firemen Collapse

CHICAGO (UP) — Negotiations collapsed today between representatives of the nation's railroads and 50,000 firemen.

A railroad spokesman said leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen walked out of negotiations this morning, declaring them "deadlocked."

The spokesman said the railroads would ask the National Railway Mediation Board to intervene.

Negotiations had been in progress here since Sept. 5. The union had demanded a wage increase of $3 a day, plus a company financed hospital, surgical and medical benefit plan.

State Banking Officials to Advise Auditor

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—State banking officials today announced appointment of a special Banking Advisory Committee for the state auditor of public accounts headed by Arthur Beckman, Kankakee.

T. E. McNamara, Streator, president of the Illinois Bankers' Assn. and auditor Lloyd Morey announced the committee appointment here.

Beckman is president of the First Trust and Savings Bank, Kankakee. Vice chairman of the advisory group is C. A. Webber, president of the Campaign County Bank and Trust Co., Urbana.

Morey said the committee is designed to strengthen the examining division of the auditor's office, and he will take special interest in suggestions from the committee for the operations of the examining division, which supervises the 530 state-chartered banks in Illinois.

Morey said he had urged formation of the advisory committee in order to provide a professional group "to which I might turn for advice on specific problems, and which would feel free to bring suggestions."

McNamara said the committee was appointed at a meeting of the IBA Executive Committee earlier this week here.

Other committee members are W. James Patton, Jefferson Trust and Savings Bank, Peoria; Charles Z. Meyer, First National Bank, Chicago; Eugene S. Williams, National Stock Yards National Bank, National City; Harold R. Fischer, First National Bank, Granite City; Arthur French, Farmers and Merchants State Bank, Jacksonville; E. C. Burmeister, Lake View Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, and Oscar Schafale, Bank of Marion, Marion.

Officers of the bankers' association will also serve as ex officio members of the committee.

Bulganin Rejects 'Open Sky,' Asks Armed Forces Cut

MOSCOW (UP) — The letter Premier N. A. Bulganin sent to President Eisenhower this week repeated Russia's rejection of the U. S. "open sky" plan and urged the United States to reduce its armed forces, it was announced tonight.

The text of the Bulganin letter, released by the Soviet government, expressed "regret" that America had not matched the reduction of armed forces recently announced by Russia.

The letter, dated Tuesday and written from the Black Sea resort where Bulganin is vacationing, was received in Washington Thursday. It replied to a letter Mr. Eisenhower sent the Soviet premier Aug. 4 urging Russia to help create a "new spirit" in East-West relations.

Stratton, Austin Exchange State Campaign Blasts

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—Gov. William G. Stratton fired his first direct shot at his Democratic opponent Richard B. Austin Thursday night with a charge that Austin was handicapped by Chicago political leaders.

Austin, meanwhile, had equally hot words for Stratton at East St. Louis where he suggested Stratton should tell a grand jury about his relationships with Orville E. Hodge, whom the governor forced out of office and off the state GOP ticket.

Stratton made his first reference to Austin in a speech at Taylorville's soybean festival. He said Christian County Democrats have "been forced to take a man" as their candidate for governor "without any opportunity to vote on him."

Stratton referred to the fact that Democratic primary winner Herbert C. Paschen withdrew from the race for governor and was replaced by Austin.

The governor charged that Austin, named to take Paschen's place by the Democratic State Central committee, was picked in a series of "secret meetings" among Chicago party leaders.

He said Austin was "unknown and inexperienced" in state government.

Austin said Stratton has "indicated he is going to refuse to answer questions we have posed about the Hodge case. If he persists in this," Austin said, "there are grand juries and public opinion; either way he's going to answer."

UN Observers Investigate Jordan Charge of 40 Killed by Israeli Raid

JERUSALEM (UP) — Jordan charged today that Israeli forces killed at least 40 Jordanians Thursday night in an attack that wiped out the desert headquarters of the British-trained Arab Legion.

A Jordanian protest to United Nations truce supervisors said the headquarters at Gharandel—only Jordanian outpost on the frontier between the Dead Sea and Gulf of Akaba—was "totally demolished."

The still incomplete casualty count increased the toll of this week's border incidents to around 75. The Gharandel attack was the most serious to be reported since the Gaza raids that inspired U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld's "save the peace" mission last year.

A team of U. N. observers left at once for Gharandel, in the desert 115 miles south of here, to investigate the Jordanian charge.

The legion, strongest armored force in the Arab world, was unable to get reinforcements to the headquarters in time to block the raid because it is too distant from any other strong point.

No official comment on the attack could be obtained immediately from Israel, but some Israeli sources believed it may have been intended as retaliation for the killing of three watchmen by Jordanians Thursday.

The Gharandel incident was the first major assault on an Arab Legion post since last year, when Jordan dismissed Lt. Gen. John B. Glubb and the other British officers who organized and trained the legion—and prevented it from taking part in simmering Palestine frontier violence.

Seek Money Bag With $44,000

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (UP) — The federal government today is frantically hunting for a money bag containing $44,000 in new $1 bills.

Postal Inspector E. E. Harding said the money vanished from a railroad mail car somewhere between Washington, D. C. and Memphis, Tenn.

Harding refused to speculate on whether it was lost or stolen, whether it was mislaid, filched by a mail clerk, or accidentally dropped from the speeding train.

Serial numbers on the missing bills run from C 62184001-L to C 62228000-L.

Hank Aaron, In Spectacular Bid for N. L. Player Award, Sparks Braves to Double Win

By United Press

Milwaukee had a two-game lead today and heroes by the handful but all of them were overshadowed by hammerin' Hank Aaron, who all but nailed down the flag himself single-handedly Thursday night.

The 22-year-old Aaron, making a spectacular bid for the Most Valuable Player Award, was little short of magnificent in leading the Braves to a two-night double-header sweep over the battling Phillies Thursday night.

1. He tripled home the winning run in Milwaukee's 13-inning 3-2 victory in the opener.
2. He smashed his 25th homer in the 11th inning of the nightcap to put the Braves ahead and after Ted Kazanski's homer tied the score in the bottom of the frame, Aaron came up again and...
3. Delivered a sacrifice fly with the bases loaded to give the Braves a 4-3 triumph in the 12-inning finale.

Spahn Wins 200th

All told, Aaron drove in four runs and was such a standout that he easily eclipsed such other developments as Warren Spahn registering the 200th victory of his career in the nightcap and outfielder Bobby Thomson's pair of spectacular throws which saved both the first and second games.

Spahn gave up only six hits, including homers by Jim Green-grass, Andy Seminick and Kazanski in joining the ranks of the 200-game winners and posting his 17th triumph of the season.

Thomson, fined $100 only last Wednesday for an unauthorized and unsuccessful attempt to steal home, threw out Willie Jones in the 12th inning of the opener when Jones tried to score on Del Ennis' single, and then cut down Richie Ashburn at the plate in the ninth inning of the nightcap on another single by Ennis.

Milwaukee Manager Fred Haney was so stirred by Thomson's defensive brilliance he hinted he might rescind the fine.

Phillips Gets Win

Rookie Taylor Phillips, who entered the opener in the sixth in relief of Bob Trowbridge, blanked the Phils the rest of the way for his fifth victory. Robin Roberts started the nightcap for the Phils but gave way after 11 innings and Ben Flowers was charged with the loss.

The third-place Cincinnati Redlegs gained a half-game on the idle second-place Brooklyn Dodgers with a 5-4 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Rookie Frank Robinson's ninth-inning single scored Ray Jablonski with the winning run. Joe Nuxhall gained his 12th win in relief while Roy Face was the loser. George Crowe and Frank Thomas hit homers.

In the only other National league game, Vinegar Bend Mizell of the Cardinals pitched his second straight shutout to defeat the Giants, 5-0. Rip Repulski and Ken Boyer each homered while a pair of ex-Giants, Whitey Lockman and Ray Katt drove in the other three runs between them. Al Worthington was the loser.

The Yankees, continuing their cakewalk to the American league flag, defeated the Athletics, 3-2, to move 11 games in front again. Mickey Mantle's 48th homer in the third inning, his first circuit clout this month, turned out to be the winning margin as southpaw Whitey Ford doled out five hits for his 18th triumph.

No. 20 for Pierce

Left-hander Billy Pierce of the White Sox became the American league's first 20-game winner with a 10-inning 4-3 victory over the Red Sox. Ron Northey's pinch single in the 10th drove in Nellie Fox from second base as Tom Brewer was thwarted in quest of his 20th triumph. Jim Rivera's seventh-inning homer gave Chicago a 3-2 lead but Jim Piersall's ninth-inning homer sent the game into extra innings.

Two homers by Gus Triandos, his 17th and 18th of the campaign, paced the Orioles to a 4-1 decision over the second-place Indians. Triandos belted both of his homers off rookie Hank Aguirre, a 24-year-old left hander Cleveland is expecting big things from next year. Lanky Connie Johnson struck out nine and gave up five hits, including a homer by Bobby Avila, in posting his eighth triumph.

Ray Boone hammered out four hits and Paul Foytack hurled five-hit ball in leading the Tigers to their seventh straight victory, a 7-2 win over the Senators. The triumph gave Foytack a season slate of 13 and 12. Chuck Stobbs dropped his 12th decision against 15 victories.

Legion to Play Carverville Here Saturday Night

Oscar Horsley's Carverville Stars will be the visitors for a game with the Legion baseball team Saturday at 7:45 p. m.

"Lefty" Seats, an outstanding ex-professional pitcher, will hurl for Carverville and either Farley or Terry Jones, the kid catcher signed recently by the Chicago Cubs for a $2,000 bonus, will catch. Ernie Reynolds, one of southern Illinois' finest centerfielders, will be in centerfield and Joe Castrale, who local fans always enjoy watching play shortstop, will be at short and "Itchy" Jones, Herrin high school's outstanding all-around athlete, probably will be on second. The Bollinger brothers will be at first and third.

Don Stout will probably pitch this game for the Legion with Bill McNew catching. The Legion will be at full strength for the contest.

The five top batters for the first 27 games by the Legion are: Dick Odle .336; Harold Guiley .339; Merle Dailey .321; Ronnie Ziegler .319, and Bill McNew .311.

'Tiger' Jones Meets Wilf Greaves in TV Bout Tonight

WASHINGTON — Ralph "Tiger" Jones meets Wilf Greaves tonight in a nationally-televised fight featuring youth versus ring know-how.

Promoter Goldie Ahearn said it should be "one hell of a brawl."

The veteran Jones, from Yonkers, N. Y., has fought 59 battles and was the last man to defeat Sugar Ray Robinson. He has a record of 40 wins, 16 losses and 3 draws. Eleven of his wins were by knockouts.

Greaves, a former Canadian who now makes his home in Pittsburgh, is almost painfully shy on professional ring experience.

The Jones-Greaves bout will be televised locally by station WSIL at 8 p. m.

Ex-Globetrotter Coaches Catholic School in Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. — On a dusty practice field of a predominantly white high school here some 30 boys are learning football under a former Harlem Globetrotter Negro athlete.

Lance Cudjoe, 34, who holds a master's degree from Oklahoma A&M College at Stillwater, was engaged this fall as football and basketball coach at Mount St. Mary's Catholic school.

Cudjoe is the first Negro to coach at a formerly all-white school in Oklahoma — and perhaps in the whole South. Even with integration, all but a handful of the 250 students are white.

Catholic schools have become trail blazers in ending segregation in Oklahoma. Some opened their doors to all races several months before the U. S. Supreme Court's decision of last May.

Besides his duties at St. Mary's, Cudjoe teaches at a still segregated Negro public school near here.

Eldorado Eagles In Action at Anna Tonight

'B' Team Opens Season Monday Against Benton

The Eldorado high school varsity football squad swings into action this evening at Anna and the "B" team opens its schedule Monday night, entertaining Benton.

Although the Eldorado coaching staff isn't optimistic about the approaching season, neither are the "blues" being sung in the Eldorado camp.

The opinion seems to be "we will give most every team on our schedule a fight."

The Eldorado candidates are lacking in size and experience, but have displayed lots of fight and hustle and have been blocking and tackling hard in practice.

Tonight's game should prove to be a good yardstick for the rest of the season. Anna is rated one of the better squads in the Southwestern conference.

Eldorado's varsity schedule:

Sept. 14—Anna-Jonesboro
Sept. 21—McLeansboro
Sept. 28—Harrisburg
Oct. 5—Christopher
Oct. 12—Carmi
Oct. 19—West Frankfort
Oct. 26—Cairo
Nov. 2—Benton
Nov. 9—Metropolis

Eldorado "B" schedule:

Sept. 24—Carbondale
Oct. 1—Harrisburg
Oct. 8—Open Date

Oct. 29—McLeansboro
Nov. 5—Marion

All varsity home games at Eldorado starts at 7:30 p. m. and "B" games will get underway at 7 p. m.

Musial Plans to Retire in 1958 After 3000-Hit Goal

NEW YORK — Stan Musial of the Cardinals said today he plans to retire in 1958 after he achieves his goal of becoming the seventh player in modern baseball history to collect 3,000 hits.

The 35-year-old Musial who got the 2,763rd hit of his major league career against the New York Giants Thursday night, insisted he definitely will continue playing next season.

"Getting 3,000 hits is the one big aim I have left," he said. "When I finally get that one I will have had enough. But that should take me until somewhere around 1958."
